

LUMBERTOWN U.S.A.

INTERESTING HISTORY

Re-discover the old lumbering days of this area in this typical lumber town of the 1870's. Re-live the history of the area by visiting thirty buildings that line the streets. You'll see the oldest print shop in the state, the general store, the "Last Turn" saloon, the blacksmith shop, the firebarn, livery stable, harness shop, lensorial parlor, Maggie's Millinery, the photographer's shop, a cobbler's shop, Sugar Bush syrup mill and much more!

ENTERTAIN THE YOUNGSTERS

Go down to the levee on Blueberry River where you can take them for a ride on the riverboat Blue Berry Belle; where you can get on a genuine replica of the first N.P. railroad train and take the scenic ride around the area.

GOOD . . . OLD-FASHIONED FOOD—

You'll enjoy a wonderful family style chicken dinner in the Lumbertown Dining Room great food in an 1870 setting.

TREATS, TOO!

Visit the Old Ice Cream Parlor where you can enjoy old-fashioned ice cream just like grandpa and grandma used to eat—and served in old-fashioned big sized dishes.
